Why Should I Go To Camp?

- To make new friends!
- To enjoy a variety of activities.
- To make decisions on my own.
- To feel good about myself and develop courage to try new things.
- To learn new skills.
- To be a part of a special community where you are listened to and respected, where you belong, learn and contribute.
- To be me — not somebody else's brother or sister.

TO HAVE FUN, FUN, FUN!!

What is 4-H Camp?

4-H County Camp is a fun-filled 3 day camp at Rock Springs 4-H Center. Campers join together with 8 other campers, near their own age, and with a counselor to take part in all kinds of fun, safe, and educational activities. Some camp activities include: horseback riding, canoeing, dances, movies, campfire programs, crafts, archery and more!

Who Can Go to Camp?

Camp is for boys and girls who have completed 3rd thru 7th grades. 4-Hers are welcome to bring friends who aren't current 4-H members.

How Do I Sign Up?

Just fill out the registration form on the back of this page and return it, along with a non-refundable $50 deposit to the Extension Office. Camp costs $200.

The Sunny Hills Camping Association is comprised of the following Kansas Counties:
