Gary Fuller Spring Classic

2023 Show Guidelines

Show coordinators reserve the right to keep any individual from showing in the Gary Fuller Spring Classic for any reason they deem necessary.

General Show Rules:

- No bedding is allowed - Mats only. Bring generators.
- No parents allowed in the make-ready area.
- To enter showmanship classes at no cost, a paid class entry must be made by exhibitor.

Health Requirements:

- Show officials reserve the right to remove any animal from the grounds if it appears diseased, emaciated or extremely unthrifty. All animals are subject to examination by show officials/representatives. If infected animals are found, the entire trailer will be sent home.

Sheep/Meat Goats:

- No bedding is allowed - Mats only. Bring generators.
- Exhibitors must show their own animal for showmanship classes.
- All market classes will be weighed and divided into classes by weight only.
- Five head or more of a breed will constitute a ewe breed class. Yearling ewes may be sorted by breed if numbers warrant.
- Breeding does will be shown by weight.
- All animals must be identified with a registered tattoo or an official USDA premise ID tag. Kids or lambs, under 8 weeks of age, accompanying their dams, are exempt from identification/tagging requirements.
- Animals shown in Market classes are not eligible to show in breeding classes. Market lambs may be ewes or wethers and must be slick shorn. No artificial coloring allowed.
